

Community foundation grants AID $10,000

By KANE COUNTY CHRONICLE - neighbors@kcchronicle.com

Created: Friday, January 11, 2013 9:52 a.m. CST

AURORA – The Association for Individual Development received a $10,000 grant from the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley. This grant contributed to window replacement at the AID group home located on Kenilworth Road in Aurora. The house is home to five individuals with diverse disabilities.

The Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley is a philanthropic organization that administers charitable funds from which grants and scholarships are distributed to benefit residents of Aurora, the Tri-Cities and Kendall County.

For more information on the foundation, visit www.communityfoundationfrv.org or call 630-896-7800.