AURORA - Thanks to a grant from the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley, Triple Threat Mentoring is in the process of upgrading its office technology. The Foundation awarded the grant to Triple Threat in December 2013, and the Aurora-based non-profit has purchased a new printer/fax machine, and 4 new computers.

"We're extremely grateful for this grant from the Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley," said Caleb Luper, President/CEO of Triple Threat Mentoring. "We want to focus as much of our resources as possible on serving at-risk youth. This grant will help us do exactly that."

The total of the grant award is $9,800.

Triple Threat Mentoring launched in late 2007 in Aurora and serves nearly 4,000 under-resourced youth annually through programming and events in Arts, Academics and Athletics.

The non-profit's mission is "Empowering urban youth to develop confidence, character and life skills."

The Community Foundation of the Fox River Valley is a non-profit philanthropic organization based in Aurora, Illinois that administers individual charitable funds from which grants and scholarships are distributed to benefit the citizens of the Greater Aurora Area, the TriCities and Kendall County Illinois.
